Expansion of the Trust: Risk appetite grid

This document sets out a spectrum of risk across core dimensions relevant to CIT when considering potential expansion of the Trust. In the first instance the aim is to support a Trust Board discussion around its preferred risk appetite when considering whether to give the CEO the go ahead to pursue a potential opportunity for the Trust to acquire an additional school. Such decisions will always need to be considered in their wider context both internally (e.g. particular challenges that might have arisen within one or more of our schools, or the wider Trust) and externally (e.g. Ofsted outcomes).

Consistent with the Scheme of Delegation, these decisions need to be considered at the following 'stage' gates:

1. CEO in contact with Regional Director to discuss potential new school and begin initial preparatory work
2. Trust Board approval to progress to:
  - a)
